

Consideration of evaluations from current academic teachers is a critical part of our admission process. All information submitted in connection with a student's application to Pine Cobble School, including teacher recommendations and school records, are reviewed by the Admission Committee only; they do not become part of the student's permanent file, and they are not shared with the student or the student's parents.

To preserve confidentiality, Pine Cobble School requests that all recommendations and records be sent directly from the current school to Pine Cobble School. Please email your completed recommendation form to Associate Director of Admissions, Sue Gundrum: s.gundrum@pinecobble.org, or submit completed recommendations by fax: 413-458-8174.
